Dear Colonel Geary:

Subject: Hyac I Refurbishment Program

Confirming our conversation regarding the subject matter it is my understanding that you intend to cover the costs for performance of the subject effort as a special task order against Contract HA-6110, - (AF33(657)-11574). To assist you in effecting the mechanics of such approach I have herewith appended a proposed statement of work which should comprise the subject matter of the above cited task order. STATINTL

In accordance with our proposal letter dated 5 August 1963 directed to your attention, it is intended that the aforementioned task order be funded on a Time and Materials basis predicated upon the rates set forth in the 5 August letter. As stated therein, it is estimated that the total exposure to the Government should not exceed $75,000. We have also attached for your information a Summary Report relative to the subject program.

We trust the foregoing information is in full response to our understanding regarding this matter and that the information will enable you to initiate the required action.

Very truly yours,

WJL/kmt

Vice-President
